Dwyer Offers to Match Banquet Against Lamplighter.

THE GARFIELD TRACK RAIDED.

Plunger Wheelock's Big Coup on Prince Fortunatus.

Lamplighter's defeat of Banquet in the Twin City Handicap a few days ago did not satisfy Mr. M. F. Dwyer that Lamplighter was Banquet's superior. Banquet got tangled up at the head of the stretch in that race, and every one noticed that when he got free and clear he came with an extraordinary burst of speed. Then his easy victory over Montana on Thursday gave Mr. Dwyer great confidence that the son of Rayon d'Or could defeat Lamplighter, and he offered to make a match. He stipulated that Banquet should carry 122 pounds and Lamplighter 115. He was willing to race for any amount providing the race was at a mile and a half. Mr. Lorillard very naturally refused to consider the proposition, as Lamplighter would just be giving Banquet eight pounds. He even refused to make a match at weight for age, and intimated that Banquet ought to concede Lamplighter about two pounds. Of course, all talk of a match ended. There is a chance, however, that Lamplighter and Banquet will come together in one of Brooklyn's specials, a weight-for-age race. Some heavy betting will be indulged in then for Lorillard and Dwyer, are noted plunger.

Just after the first race had been run at Garfield Park, Chicago yesterday a force of 100 policemen swooped down upon the course and arrested the thirteen jockeys who had ridden in the race. Col. Lewis, Mr. Clark, the presiding judge, Secretary Swigert, Starter Pettingill and several other employees of the track. The prisoners were quickly bailed out and an attempt was made to resume racing. The police, however, informed the jockeys that all who rode would be arrested, and the audience had to declare the races off. The sudden movement on the part of the police is inexplicable, and the officials at the track are in ignorance of what law they have violated.

Paradise was heavily backed to beat Strathmore yesterday, notwithstanding the latter had easily defeated the Westerner in the Twin City Handicap a few days previous. The crowd, however, thought that Paradise was to be cut loose, and made a wild plunge. Strathmore won very easily, though for a time his backers were kept guessing. Paradise went out and opened up a gap of three lengths, but once Strathmore got to him he stopped. The Westerner, by the way, do not seem to be getting much of the money. Their cracks divide into second raters, and unless they touch some up to expectations prices in the Western market will fall.

Old Tea Tray had another sulky fit. He pinned his ears back, he threw his forelegs and he snarled. He was a very bad boy when he is in the humor, though he scots around the track faster than a whirlwind.

White Wings was a good thing at Saratoga yesterday, being backed down from 15 to 1 to 3 to 1, going to the post a favorite. But for an accident White Wings would have won and the bookmakers would have been badly scorched.

Saratoga's meeting closes to-day, and from all accounts the new management has scored a success. The racing, while not high class, has certainly been interesting, and the crowds have been quite as large as those in attendance at the track. The city of Saratoga shows a race away considerable money, and whether the financial end of the business shows a balance on the right side is a question.

Panway and Merry Duke fell in the third race at Saratoga, and jockey Harry Jones was badly shaken up. This youngster's mishaps are frequent, and it is kept on he will rival Billy Donohue, who has had nearly every bone in his body broken by tumbles in races.

Lord Motley will do to keep an eye on. His second to Rabeland yesterday was a very good race, and showed that Plunger Wheelock was not far from right when he played the colt to beat The Pepper, Kilkenny and others a few days ago.

Tar and Tartar is another good thing which will go through very soon. He ran a cracking good race yesterday, and it did him a world of good. His defeat of Hamble at Morris Park has not been forgotten.

The Kinko colt had better be scratched from the list. As a race horse he is a dismal failure. He keeps running just good enough to warrant his being played again, and he has cost Mr. Gubbard quite a small fortune in bets.

A meeting of the stockholders of Jerome Park was held yesterday, but the syndicate which proposed buying the old race course for the purpose of holding regular meetings there did not put in an appearance. The offer of $200,000 was received from a firm of real estate brokers, and it is probable that the bid will be accepted.

Prince Fortunatus was well placed in the last race yesterday. Plunger Wheelock held him out in his book and backed him all around the ring, getting as good as 5 to 1 for the bulk of his money. His racing ability that landed the Prince a winner, for Madrid closed fast in the final furlong and lost by a head.

WALL STREET NEWS.

No Panic Follows News of To-Day's Cholera Cases.

Bank Statements Show a Loss of $2,257,000 Reserve.

General Recovery of Prices, with a Jump in Pullman.

Wall Street, Saturday, Sept. 3.—At the opening of business an effort was made to break leading, and the stock was forced down to 53½ on large transactions. The trouble between the company and the Pennsylvania was used by the bears to unsettle the market, but notwithstanding the arrival of the Rugs and Normanna from Hamburg with cholera aboard, there was no repetition of Thursday's panic. The cholera seems to have lost its terror for stock operators at the moment. The recovery in prices ranged from ¼ to ¾. American Sugar rose ¾ to 11½; Lackawanna 3 to 15½; New Jersey Central 3 to 15½; Consolidated Gas 1½ to 11½; Reading 1½ to 5½; and Lead preferred 1½ to 9½.

S. V. White started the rally in sugar, while the coal stocks were in better demand on a story that the banking interests will not permit the leading and Pennsylvania to go to war.

Pullman Palace broke 2½ to 190½ and jumped to 105.

The bank statement was unfavorable, showing a greater loss in 1892 than in 1891.

The following are the comparative figures:

Loans, $490,777,500 Sept. 3, 1892, $5,550,000

Deposits, $1,388,900 Sept. 3, 1892, $5,550,000

Deposits, $1,388,900 Sept. 3, 1892, $5,550,000

ENGLAND'S SOUTH SEA OUTRAGES.

Robbery of a Chinaman the Pretext for Seizing the Islands.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3.—The bark Lonn-ganna has arrived direct from the Gilbert Islands, and the master, Capt. Bowyer, states that he fell in with H. M. S. Royalist during his cruise among the islands.

Capt. Davis, of the Royalist, informed him it was his intention to remove every firearm from the natives in order that the tribes may be shorn of their great destructiveness.

Capt. Davis related how a British subject named Hong Sam, a Chinese storekeeper, had been robbed of tobacco and gin worth $55 on Jan. 18, 1892; that the King had neglected or refused to give him redress, and said that it was why England had seized the group.

AT ODDS OVER COAL RATES.

Reading Withdraws Its Joint Tariff with the Pennsylvania Road.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 3.—The officials of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company were asked to-day whether they had received notice from the Reading Railroad Company, withdrawing the joint tariffs for the transportation of anthracite coal over the two lines.

In answer it was stated that such notice had been received and it was presumed that the notice had been sent because the Pennsylvania Railroad Company had declined, at the request of the Reading Railroad Company, to increase the rate on anthracite coal to Philadelphia.

ROBBERY ON LA TOURAINE.

A Supposed Steamship Agent Accused by a Passenger.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

John Doe, alias O. Gulliot, was held in Jefferson Market Court this morning to await return from Europe or Nicholas Notterwick, who charges that Gulliot entered his cabin on the steamship La Touraine last night and robbed him.

Cards in his pockets indicated that Gulliot was the American agent of A. Touchard, Lallemand, shipper, Havre, Paris and Rome.

GEN. BOGRAN IN TOWN.

Honduras's Ex-President Denies That He Has Been Killed.

Gen. Luis Bogran, twice President of Honduras, is in the city to-day in his progress across the continent on a pleasure tour. He was reported a few weeks ago to have been killed during an insurrection in Honduras. He denied that report to-day, intimating that it had been promulgated for political effect only.

Gen. Bogran's second term as President expired last November, and it is an unwritten law that no third term shall be given any President. He has been in invalid, but has been greatly benefited by his tour, which began July 16. He is very wealthy, and while President of Honduras gave all his salary to the cause of public education.

EX-MINISTER LEWIS DEAD.

Passed Away in the Night of Heart Disease.

Col. E. P. C. Lewis was found dead in bed at 6 o'clock this morning at his home, 505 River street, Hoboken.

Col. Lewis, who was about sixty years of age, was Minister to Portugal during President Cleveland's administration. Soon after the close of the rebellion he was married to the widow of Gen. Garret, of the Confederate army. She was the youngest daughter of Ed. Stevens, the Hoboken millionaire.

Heart disease is attributed as the cause of Col. Lewis's death.

RESTLESS IN HER SLEEP.

A Reason Why Lizzie Borden Is Not Believed Innocent.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

FALL RIVER, Sept. 3.—Miss Lizzie Borden slept uneasily at times in the matron's room at the jail last night, tossing her arms to and fro and talking in her sleep. But once she awoke and dressed she became as quiet and serene as she was when the police first interviewed her and placed her in their charge.

It is this condition of things that makes it impossible for the officers to communicate with her friends or believe in her innocence.

House Looted at Homestead.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

HOMESTEAD, Sept. 3.—One of the most shameful episodes of the present wage struggle was the looting last night of the residence of Jacob Maple, on Twelfth avenue, by Home-steaders. Maple sent his family away and went back to work in the mill. There is no clue to the perpetrators of the deed.

Two-Year-Old Record Lowered to 2.17.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

OMAHA, Sept. 3.—Online, the two-year-old pacer, lowered the world's record for his age to-day to 2.17. Astor's, the best previous record, was 2.24.
